

I am very much opposed to any deregulation of the rules governing the ownership of the various media. I believe it would be a travesty if any more consolidation occurs. The situation on radio where the takeover has already been accomplished is an indication that any further relaxation of the rules is not in the public interest. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.